

United States Department of Agriculture

SNAP Supports Work

SNAP can help connect unemployed participants to jobs and help employed participants find better paying jobs

Work experience

Job search

Vocational/Technical training

Job retention services

Education

SNAP provides employment and training (E&T) services to those who are trying to find work and assists others in gaining skills, training, or experience that lead to employment.

